Creating a Lasting Legacy

Think of the words “Last Will and Testament.” Your will (or living trust) is a final statement of what you have held to be important during your lifetime. Where you direct your lifetime of earnings and savings says a great deal about you – what you have held dear, what has touched you and enriched your life, and what you want to ensure for the next generation. As someone who recognizes the importance of providing generous support to Humboldt’s commitment to giving our students opportunities for hands-on learning with professors engaged in research and community service, we invite you to find a place in your final arrangements for Humboldt alongside family, friends, and other loved ones.
There are many advantages to bequest gifts:

- Easy to Arrange. If you have not yet prepared a will, you should do so for a number of good reasons. It is simple for your attorney to incorporate gift language as a part of the drafting process, using the sample language we provide. If you already have a will, your attorney can draft an amendment to your will for a minimal charge. A gift can likewise be easily incorporated into a revocable living trust.

- Retain full ownership and use of your assets throughout your life. Perhaps you want to make a gift to support Humboldt State University but are not in a position to draw upon resources you may need in the years ahead. A bequest allows you to make a gift while preserving your financial security.

- Flexible. A gift is not set in stone and can be changed if your life circumstances change.

- Possibly reduce taxes payable by your estate. A bequest to Humboldt results in a dollar-for-dollar estate tax charitable deduction.

EXAMPLE:

The federal estate tax rate is 35 percent, applied to taxable estates of over $5 million. If your estate is large enough to be subject to tax, a $100,000 bequest to Humboldt will result in federal estate tax savings of $35,000. This means the net cost of making the gift is only $65,000. (There would also potentially be savings with regard to state estate tax if you live in a state with an estate tax.)

Several types of bequests are possible:

- General, for a certain dollar amount -- “the sum of $25,000”
- Specific, a particular asset -- “1,000 shares of XYZ stock”
- Residual, once other assets have been distributed -- “fifty percent of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate”
- Contingent, only under certain conditions -- “in the event my spouse does not survive me”

In addition, your bequest can be used where the need is greatest or you can support a particular program.
Next steps to take if the benefits of making a bequest appeal to you:

- Review our suggested bequest language to determine what kind of bequest might be right for you. A bequest could be as simple as:

  “I give to Humboldt State University Advancement Foundation (HSUAF), a charitable foundation supporting the mission of Humboldt State University (HSU), located in Arcata, CA, Federal Tax Identification Number: 94-6077724, ____percent of my total estate (or $_____, or other property) to be used as Humboldt State University Advancement Foundation (HSUAF) deems appropriate.”

- Discuss your situation with your attorney. He or she can help you determine whether to make a bequest through a will, through an amendment (“codicil”) to your existing will, or perhaps as a distribution from a living trust.

- Once you have arranged a gift, please let us know. We would be honored to know of your gift. We would very much appreciate the opportunity to thank you and to make sure your wishes are appropriately fulfilled.

When I look at what’s happening on campus, Humboldt is still at the forefront of issues. We wanted to help new and future students to keep moving forward. That’s why it’s so important to us to give back to that gift. And the Planned Giving staff made it so simple.
